The funds for the commencement of the Library were procured from the proceeds of a Social Levee, given by the Ladies of Brighton, New Year's Eve, December 31, 1856. Funds for its maintenance and enlargement have been obtained by annual Levees since that time. The Brighton Library Association was regularly incorporated, in accordance with the Statutes of this Commonwealth, January 15, 1858. By its Constitution, the privileges of the Library are extended to all residents of the Town, of the age of fourteen years and upwards, by paying One Dollar per annum, and all Members who have reached the age of twenty-one years, are entitled to vote at the corporate meetings.

The Officers of the Association are chosen annually, on the first Friday evening in June. They consist of a President, Vice President, Clerk, Treasurer and two other Members, who, together, form the Executive Committee of the Association. The purchase of books is made by a special board, called the Library Committee. The Executive Committee have authority to make provision for a course of Lectures each Winter, and for other Literary Exercises, at their discretion.

A Board of three Trustees hold in trust the Library and other property of the Association, for the purpose indicated by the following Article of the Constitution.

ART. 5. Sect. 2d. "The Trustees shall deliver up to the Town of Brighton, or persons authorized by the Town to receive it, the Library and other property of the Association, whenever said Town of Brighton shall make suitable provision for the maintenance and increase of the Library, provided the town secure to the Association, the Library room or some other convenient room for the meetings of the Association."

Additional donations have been made to the Library since those mentioned in the Catalogue formerly published; the largest and most recent being that made by Joseph Breck, Esq. Those desirous to contribute Books are respectfully invited to do so.

The subscription of One Dollar a year, entitles the subscriber to one volume a week, and to extra volumes at the charged rates. For less time the terms are thirty-eight cents per quarter, or five cents a week for one volume.

Members may keep books a fortnight, but a fine of ten cents a week is imposed for all books kept beyond that time.

Books defaced or lost, are to be replaced. All fines and damages are to be paid on demand, to the Librarian, or the use of the Library is forfeited. All books are to be returned the week preceeding the annual meeting. Handling of the books on the shelves is not allowed without the consent of the Librarian. The Library Room is open every Saturday afternoon and evening from 2 to 5, and 7 to 9.

☞ In the following Catalogue, titles of books beginning with "A," "An," or "The" must be sought under the letter of the word next succeeding the article in the title. Historical Works are collected under the letter H, Biographical Works under the letter L, word "Life."
